STAFF ADMINISTRATOR: TRACIE HENRY

On behalf of the Illinois High School Association Board of Directors, the Competitive Dance Advisory Committee, and our member schools, it is my pleasure to congratulate you and your team for qualifying for the 2024-25 IHSA Dance State Finals. We appreciate all of the work that you have put forth to be at the State tournament and hope this is a memorable weekend.

A special welcome and congratulations are extended to all the participants of this year's competition. You are applauded for your hard work, practice and commitment which have enabled you and your school to accomplish success. I also want to commend the coaches of all of our competing schools who have trained and prepared these dancers to reach this high level of performance.

The IHSA believes that interscholastic activities enrich the educational experience. Regardless of the outcome of this competition we ask that you do your best and display outstanding sportsmanship to represent your school and team. You have spent many long hours preparing and we wish you the very best and hope you enjoy your day at the IHSA state dance tournament. You should be able to find in this packet the helpful information to make your trip to State as smooth as possible. Feel free to call our office if you have any questions. Thank you for your support of IHSA and for being a part of the inaugural IHSA state final experience. Congratulations!

Sincerely,
Tracie Henry
Assistant Executive Director, Illinois High School Association
