Terms and Conditions: The Terms and Conditions are the rules under which your school agreed to compete in the state series. The Terms and Conditions can be found online at IHSA.org on the “Individual Events” page under “Resources”.

2022-2023 Rule Changes: Refer to the gray shaded areas of the Speech Individual Events State Series Terms and Conditions for any rule changes.

- 1 Recommendation: IV. Financial Arrangements D. E. F. Regional, Sectional, State Event Fees: For each event in which a school has entered participants in the regional contest, an event fee of $20.00 dollars (per event) shall be paid to the regional host school at the regional entry meeting. The $15.00 per event shall also be paid to the sectional host school and the state final venue. No contestant from a school will be permitted to participate in the regional, sectional or state final contest if event fees are not paid.

Rationale: This would align the individual event fee with the Performance in the Round fee that is currently $20.

- 2 Recommendation: Speech Event Summaries Prose Reading pullout section

Remove “Compilations are permissible” from the material section of the rules.

Material: Material must come from appropriate printed, published sources and must meet high standards for good literature. Material must come from prose literature. Sources of material include cuttings from novels, short stories, biographies, nonfiction, letters and diaries. The use of dramatic literature is not permitted. Compilations are permissible. Each contestant will prepare one (1) Prose Reading selection. Cuttings must contain less than 50% dialogue.

Rationale: Compilations are not a competitive norm nor does continuing to allow them does not have much utility in an era where short stories are plentiful from a variety of sources. Considering there is no minimum time on the event, a shorter story could work in competition as well and not need to be paired with additional stories.

b. Sectional: Each sectional shall have two (2) judges for each speech individual event round who judges prelims for both sections. Sectional final rounds shall have three (3) judges. Performance in the round competes only once and shall have five (5) judges at the sectional level where the high and low score shall be dropped.

3. Ranking to Balance Rounds: To insure equality in ranking between different sections of an event, in no case, except for overtime penalties, shall a contestant rank lower than the smallest number in any section of the event for the round. In other words, if round 1 section A has 5 contestants and round 1 section B has 6 contestants, personnel in the tab room should record any rank of 6 given by any judge as a rank of 5, since that is the smallest number of contestants in any section of the event for the round. Judges are to rank all contestants accordingly and any adjustment of ranks under this provision are to be done exclusively in the tab room by the tab room personnel.

4. Advancement from Preliminaries to Finals: Following completion of both preliminary rounds of competition at the regional and sectional contests judges' rankings shall be tallied. Performance in the round has only one round of competition at regionals and sectionals.

a. Regional: In all events, excluding performance in the round, the ranks received from two (2) judges – one (1) judge from preliminary round 1 section A or B and one (1) judge from preliminary round 2 section A or B judge shall be added. The six (6) contestants with the lowest cumulative totals of preliminary round rankings shall advance to the finals. In the event of a tie for the last qualifying position, all tied contestants shall also advance to the finals. In Performance in the Round, the three (3) judges' rankings shall be tabulated. The entry whose total of rankings is lowest is the winner; the entry with the second lowest total is second, etc. The top four (4) finishers in PIR at each regional and all ties shall advance to the sectional.

b. Sectional: In all events, excluding performance in the round, the ranks received from four (4) judges – two (2) judges from preliminary round 1 section A or B and two (2) judges from preliminary round 2 section A or B shall be added. The six (6) contestants with the lowest cumulative totals of preliminary round rankings shall advance to the finals. In the event of a tie for the last qualifying position, all tied contestants shall also advance to the finals. In Performance in the Round, the five (5) judges' rankings shall be tabulated. The entry whose total of rankings is lowest is the winner; the entry with the second lowest total is second, etc. The highest ranking and lowest ranking shall be discarded for each entry, and only the three (3) intermediate rankings for each entry shall be considered in determining its final standing. The entry with the lowest total of intermediate rankings is the winner of the event; the next lowest is second, etc. through the listings.

c. State: In all events, excluding performance in the round, following completion of the state preliminary rounds, the six (6) rankings received by each contestant shall be reviewed. The highest and lowest rankings for each contestant shall be dropped and the intermediate four rankings added. For each event category, the six (6) contestants with the lowest cumulative totals of the intermediate rankings shall advance to the final round. In the event of a tie for the last qualifying position, all tied contestants shall also advance to the finals.

In performance in the round, the eighteen (18) qualifiers from the six (6) Sectionals will be divided into two sections of nine performances each. Entries in each section will perform once and be ranked by a panel of three judges. The three performances in each section with the lowest cumulative rankings will advance to the finals along with any performance whose total of rankings is lower than the total of rankings for the third-place performance in the opposite preliminary group. The finals will be judged by a panel of five (5) judges; each judge will rank the performances 1st through 6th (no ties). The high and low rankings will be discarded, and the remaining ranks will be added. The performance in the round with the lowest cumulative rankings is first; second lowest is second, and so on. If a tie occurs, the tied competitors shall be separated from all other competitors and assigned relative rankings. If there is still a tie, then the ranks assigned by all five (5) judges will be considered, and the contestant with the lowest total of five rankings will be declared the winner.

a. Regional: After the final round for each event, the three (3) judges' rankings shall be added and a summation made of the rankings received by each finalist. The contestant whose total of rankings is lowest is the winner; the contestant with the second lowest total is second, etc. After each performance in the round has competed once, the three (3) judges rankings shall be added. The performance whose total added ranking is lowest is the winner; the performance with the second lowest total is second, etc. The top four (4) finishers advance to sectionals.

b. Sectional: After the final round for each event, the three (3) judges' rankings shall be added, and a summation made of the rankings received by each finalist. The contestant whose total of rankings is lowest is the winner; the contestant with the second lowest total is second, etc. After each performance in the round has competed once, the five (5) judges rankings shall be added. The high and low scores are dropped. The performance whose total added ranking is lowest is the winner; the performance with the second lowest total is second, etc. The top three (3) finishers advance to sectionals.

c. State: After the final round, with five (5) judges being used, the highest and lowest rankings for each contestant shall be dropped and not considered in determining final standing. The contestant/performance with the lowest total of intermediate rankings is the winner; the contestant with the second lowest total is second, etc...

6. Resolution of Ties:

a. Ties Affecting Advancement from Preliminaries to Finals: At all contests (regional, sectional and state) contestants tied for the last position which qualifies for advancement from preliminaries to finals shall advance without the tie being broken.

b. Ties Affecting Awards and/or Team Scoring:

(1). At regional and sectional contests, ties for places for which awards are presented shall be broken by separating the tied competitors from all other contestants and assigning them relative rankings on the basis of judges' decisions, as though they were the only competitors. The contestant whose total of relative rankings is lowest is the winner.

(2). At the state final contest, the tied competitors shall be separated from all other competitors and assigned relative rankings. If there is still a tie, then the ranks assigned by all five (5) judges will be considered, and the contestant with the lowest total of five rankings will be declared the winner.

(3). If there is still a tie, duplicate awards will be provided and the team points for the tied places will be added and equally divided among the teams of the tied contestants. For example, three (3) contestants are tied for fourth place at the regional. The tie is unbreakable, so the points for fourth, fifth and sixth places (3 pts., 2 pts., and 1 pt. respectively) are added and divided by three. Each school is then awarded two (2) points for its contestant's finish.

7. Team Winners: Team points shall be awarded on the basis of the following point scale for each individual event: 1st place = 6 points; 2nd place = 5 points, 3rd place = 4 points; 4th place = 3 points; 5th place = 2 points; 6th place and all other finalists = 1 point.

8. Performance in the Round (PIR) team points will not be tabulated for this event and is not eligible for team sweepstake points in Speech: Individual Events.

The competing school's principal is required to see and approve both the selection and performance of all material including substitute material, to be used by contestants from the member school in the contest series.

1. Appropriateness: Material which is inappropriate for public performance by high school students will not be tolerated. A performance (language or action) which is a literal, symbolic or colloquial expression describing or naming anything which is profane and/or vulgar, whether suited to a specific character being portrayed, is always considered inappropriate. If, in the opinion of any contest judge, material which is performed for their adjudication is inappropriate for public performance by a high school student, the judge may rank the performance down. If, in the opinion of a majority of the judges, a performance is persistently inappropriate or is flagrantly profane or vulgar, the judges may stop the performance and disqualify the contestant(s) from the contest. In either case, judges shall explain their opinions and actions in written critiques, and the judge/contest manager shall forward a copy of the critiques to the IHSA office. Contest officials shall submit a special report to the IHSA. In addition, any report of the use of inappropriate material shall be investigated by the IHSA Executive Director, who shall investigate the allegation and take action if warranted under the provision of IHSA By-law 6.010 and the procedures stated in these Terms and Conditions.

2. Published Work: In Dramatic and Humorous Duet Acting, Dramatic and Humorous Interpretation, Prose and Poetry Reading and Oratorical Declamation, printed published source must be used.

3. Original Work: In Original Oratory, Informative Speaking, Original Comedy and Special Occasion Speaking, the content, style and thought of the selection must be solely the product of the contestant and only 150 word can be direct quotations.

4. Internet for Publications: The internet may be used as a source for printed published material provided the following provisions are met:

a. It must be copyrighted and available to all (equal access).

b. It must not have been posted solely for a student's use in competitive speech activities.

c. It may not be transcribed from an audio or video source; it must be available in its original written form.

d. In addition, it is recommended that all internet sites be evaluated for authenticity.

5. Internet for Extemp: In Extemporaneous Speaking, students are allowed to access the internet during the preparation period; however, they are not allowed to communicate with another person during their preparation period.

6. Visual Aids: Any visual aids presented while performing, to the audience or to judges are not permitted at any time, including handouts or materials before, during, or after the round. Notecards and manuscripts are not considered visual aids.

B. Properties: Excluding Performance in the Round (PIR), props are prohibited. A prop shall be defined as any item that is manipulated during a performance. This includes but is not limited to, shoes, apparel (i.e.: buttons, collars, ties), accessories, hair, etc. which is used for effect during the presentation. Manuscript, notecards and prose/verse books are not considered props. Humorous and Dramatic Duet Acting events are allowed to use one (1) solid table approximately 30" x 48" with four legs and two (2) chairs as provided by the host site. In Performance in the Round, students are allowed to use up to two (2) solid tables with four legs approximately 30" x 40" in length and ten (10) chairs as provided by the host site. Folding chairs should not be used. In all duets and PIR, the performers are not allowed to stand on the tables and chairs.

C. Material at Contests: At every state series contest, the coach must have all performance material with them on site.

1. For interpretive events, Dramatic Duet Acting, Dramatic Interpretation, Humorous Duet Acting, Humorous Interpretation, Prose and Poetry Reading, the coach must have the original published source of any selection used along with a complete script of the cutting performed.

2. For all events, excluding limited prep events: Radio Speaking, Extemporaneous Speaking, and Impromptu Speaking, the coach must be able to produce a typed script/manuscript or copy of selections performed. Manuscripts must contain identification of sources of quotes. The actual source of non-original cuttings should also be identified on the script/manuscript.

3. If requested, materials must be presented within a reasonable amount of time as determined by the contest manager. Failure to produce such requested materials shall result in the disqualification of the contestant from the contest in that event. If the contestant has been ranked in the round where the violation is discovered, the ranking will be changed to DQ and the ranks of the other contestants in that round will be adjusted up as necessary.

D. Royalties: The Illinois High School Association assumes no responsibilities for the payment of royalties or other fees connected with the performance of any material in the Speech: Individual Events contest series.

E. Timekeeping: Time will be kept at all contests for all events. DDA, HDA, DI, HI, PR, PT, DEC, OO, OC, and SOS have an eight (8) minute time limit. EXTEMP has a seven (7) minute time limit. IMPT. has a two (2) minute prep with a six (6) minute time limit. RADIO has a time limit of 4:50 to 5:05 with contestants expected to finish at five (5) minutes.

1. Timers: Contest managers will arrange to have two (2) timers in every round for all events in all contests. To accommodate this requirement, if necessary, managers are authorized to give timekeeping assignments as needed to participating schools. In all events, excluding Radio speaking, timers will be seated out of the judges' sight but in full view of the performers. Timers shall use stopwatches which will be the only official timing devices. Timing devices other than those used by the appointed timekeepers are unofficial. The timers must deliver their official IHSA time sheets to the contest headquarters at the conclusion of each section.

2. Overtime: In all events except Impromptu Speaking, Extemporaneous Speaking, Radio Speaking and Performance in the Round, when a stopwatch is read to determine time, a reading of 8:30.00 or less, will not be considered a time violation. If a stopwatch reads 8:30.01 or greater, the time will be considered to be 8:31. Both timers/time sheets must show/confirm the overtime for penalties to be assessed. In Impromptu Speaking, Extemporaneous Speaking, Radio Speaking and Performance in the Round the same time concept applies per their specific time limitations.

3. Overtime Procedures: In all events except Radio Speaking, both contest timers designated by the manager shall raise their hands above their heads upon expiration of the allotted time, to let the performer know the time limit has been reached. Both timers shall keep the hands raised above their heads until the performer concludes. When the speaker concludes their presentation, both timers shall record the total elapsed time shown on their individual stopwatch on an official IHSA time sheet. Times shall not be announced to competitors, judges or audiences, except in Radio Speaking. Judges shall be instructed not to take time into consideration in their rankings. All penalties for time violations shall be assessed by the contest management/tab room.

4. Penalties for Violation: For regional, sectional and state final preliminary rounds, the contestant's ranking from each judge shall be lowered by one (1) place for each full thirty (30) seconds of overtime.

a. Regional, Sectional and State Final Preliminary Rounds: This reduction in ranking shall be mandatory and shall be administered by the contest management/tab room. Thus, a contestants ranking may exceed the least number of contestants in a round of that event. For example, contestant A is ranked 2, 3, 1 by three judges, but is overtime by forty-five (45) seconds. Contestant B is ranked 3,1, 2 and contestant C is ranked 1, 4, 3. The manager shall then adjust the rankings for the overtime contestant A to 3, 4, 2 before the tabulation of rankings is made. No change is made in the rankings of contestant B or contestant C.

In this example, final results become:

A - 2, 3, 1 overtime becomes 3, 4, 2 = 9

B - 3, 1, 2 = 6

C - 1, 4, 3 = 8

In Radio Speaking, due to overtime violations, the term "ranked last" shall mean given a rank on each individual judge's ballot equal to the number representing the number of contestants in the round. In other words, if there are six (6) contestants in the round, 'ranked last' means being given the rank of six (6) on each judge's ballot. Other contestants in the round who do not violate the time limits will have their ranks from each judge adjusted upward as appropriate.

b. State Final Rounds: In the final rounds of the state final contest only, no penalty for time violations will be assessed in any event, excluding Radio Speaking, until one (1) minute beyond the specified time limit. For example, if the time limit is eight (8) minutes, no penalty will be assessed until the speaker has exceeded nine (9) minutes as verified by two (2) stopwatches.

5. Time Cards: In Extemporaneous Speaking and Impromptu Speaking, time cards shall be used to inform the speakers of the amount of time remaining. These cards should be visible to the speaker at all times.

6. Limited Prep Events:

a. Extemporaneous Speaking: The prep room monitor will inform speakers of the allowable prep time and dismiss the speakers accordingly.

b. Impromptu Speaking: During prep, the timer will give the speaker oral prep time signals in thirty (30) second intervals in the competition room. At two (2) minutes the prep time ends and the timer will direct the competing student to begin their Impromptu speech.

c. Radio Speaking: The prep room monitor will inform speakers of the allowable prep time and dismiss the speakers accordingly. In the competition room, the timers shall be seated in such a way that they are visible to the speaker. Contestants may use their own timing devices. One of the timekeepers shall use time cards to notify the speaker when the following time remains: two (2) minutes, one (1) minute, thirty (30) seconds and fifteen (15) seconds. After the last fifteen (15) seconds has expired, the timer will notify the speaker by means of upraised fingers, when ten (10) seconds are left, and when only five (5) seconds remain in the five (5) minutes of total allowable performing time. After each presentation (in Radio Speaking only), the timers shall inform the judges of the exact time of the performance.

7. Managers shall post all performers' times in the coaches' area for coaches to review immediately following each round of competition.

F. Rule Violations: Rule violations are subject to penalty by the IHSA Board of Directors under the provisions of IHSA by-laws and any special provisions contained herein.

1. General Penalty for Violations by Contestants: Unless otherwise specified in the rules, the penalty for rules violations in any round of competition throughout the entire contest series shall be that the contestant's ranking in the round where the violation occurs be changed to last and the ranks of other contestants will be adjusted as necessary. For example, in preliminary round II section A of Humorous Duet Acting, a student from Duet A stands on the table during the duet's performance. The penalty is that the duet is to be ranked last in the round. Thus, the results for preliminary round II section A will be adjusted as follows:

Duet A was 2nd becomes 6th

Duet B was 1st remains 1st

Duet C was 3rd becomes 2nd

Duet D was 5th becomes 4th

Duet E was 6th becomes 5th

Duet F was 4th becomes 3rd

G. Disqualification: Any team that does not adhere to these terms and conditions may be subject to disqualification from the tournament and will automatically forfeit any right to awards received at the tournament.

1. Tardiness, Absences and Performance Out of Order: Contestants must be present when called upon in accordance with the scheduled program prepared/printed by the contest manager. In the event a contestant cannot, for any reason, comply with the schedule, they must contact the contest manager. Only if the manager or a member of the contest committee gives the student written permission may any contestant perform out of the order printed in the program. Contestants failing to comply with the schedule without a written excuse shall be disqualified.

2. Failure to Present Original Selections:

a. Quoted Material: If it is discovered that a contestant has included more than 150 words of direct quotation in his/her selection, they shall be disqualified.

b. Originality of Material: In all cases where originality of material is questioned, the local contest committee shall be responsible for examining the material and ruling on its eligibility. If a judge suspects that a speech is not original, they should inform the contest committee and the committee will investigate.

H. Late Discovery of Violations: If a violation is discovered after the close of the contest in which the violation occurred, the following procedure shall be followed:

1. The contestant(s) or school shall be disqualified and advancement to the next succeeding contest shall be denied if the violation is reported to the IHSA office prior to the next contest. If the violation is not reported until after the next contest, no action shall be taken, and the matter shall be considered closed.

2. If the violation is reported to the IHSA office prior to the next succeeding contest, and the contestant(s) are disqualified, the rankings of the other contestants in the event shall be revised upwards. The revised contestant(s) shall be advanced on the basis of the revised rankings.

3. If the disqualified contestant(s) or school has won any awards, such awards shall be returned to the IHSA office. Awards shall be redistributed on the basis of the revised rankings.

I. Advancement of Next Qualifier: In the event a qualified student is unable to advance to the succeeding contest the next qualifier shall advance. The highest-placing contestant from the qualifier's last qualifying contest in the same event that has not yet been offered the opportunity to advance shall be designated as the next qualifier to advance. It is the responsibility of the principal/IHSA official representative or coach to notify the IHSA office at the earliest possible time that another advancing contestant may be necessary. The IHSA office will officially inform the school's administration/coach that they will replace a qualifier.

1. In the event a qualified student(s) is unable to advance to the succeeding contest their school's principal/IHSA official representative must notify the IHSA of the student(s) withdrawal. If their coach contacts the contest manager of the withdrawal the contest manager shall direct them to have their principal/IHSA official representative notify the IHSA, and the IHSA will begin the process of contacting the next qualifier eligible to advance.

2. Any advancing qualifier(s) due to a withdrawal shall be treated from that point forward as qualified contestants, and if they are, for any reason, unable to advance to the succeeding contest, the process shall be repeated with the next highest-placing contestant(s) until an alternate qualifier who is able to advance is found.

3. If a contestant is originally tied for placement and one of the tied advancing students withdraws, no advancing qualifier is moved up to fill the withdrawing tied spot.

4. Adjustments for placements shall be done in Speechwire per the IHSA terms and conditions.

J. Protests: Any coach or judge may challenge a performance's compliance with the rules by filing a protest in writing by using the "IHSA Protest Form" and submitting the written protest to the contest manager. Other persons wishing to file such a protest or challenge, shall do so through a coach or judge at the contest. Any question relative to contest rules or any aspect of the contest which arises following the announcement of results shall be referred directly by the principal/IHSA official representative of the school(s) involved to the IHSA office. The IHSA office will give consideration to questions relative to administrative and/or clerical matters only and will do so only through the end of the first Monday following the completion of the contest involved. In compliance with IHSA By-law 6.033, protests or challenges relative to the decision of any judge will not be considered. Protest Form Entry fees for qualifiers shall be paid upon arrival at the Sectional and State Final sites. Qualifiers for whom fees are not paid as prescribed shall not be permitted to participate.

The prep room monitor in charge of the room shall see that all the rules regarding the preparation period are observed. Contest managers shall publish and post specific preparation and performance times for each contestant in each round.

2. Prep the script: The radio speaking prep room monitor will provide scripts to the competing radio speakers prior to each round. The preparation period shall begin approximately forty-five (45) minutes before the contest is scheduled to begin. Contestants preparation materials are limited to a stopwatch, writing implements, folders, scissors, tape/glue sticks, markers, and highlighters. During the preparation time, speakers shall not receive advice, information or suggestions from anyone. Provided script material will be different for each round. No other material shall be allowed in the radio speaking prep room other than stated above; this includes cell phone devices which should not be used as a time piece.

3. Speaking: A room manager will call the designated student into the competition room. The contestants should perform in an adjoining room from the judges and audience by speaking into a standard public address microphone while seated at a table. The public address speaker unit must be arranged so that the speaker's voice will be clearly audible to the judge and the audience. Competitors shall have the option of requesting a microphone check prior to the beginning their performance. A 'countdown' does not count as part of a microphone check and should not be used. Timing shall begin with the first word spoken by a competitor and timing should not including the microphone check prior to the performance. All words spoken after timing begins will be considered to have gone out 'on the air' as part of the newscast.

Standards for Excellence: The material should be an original newscast created during the prep time utilizing the provided content. The newscast should be compiled in a well-organized, logical manner. The source news stories and commercial provided by the state office should be cut and edited in a concise manner with special effort to adhere as close as possible to the five (5) minute time limitation. The development of the newscast should be such that the speaker does not deviate from the provided script, progresses with the content and demonstrates reasonable analysis in the cutting and editing of news. The radio script should display clear thinking and the organization should demonstrate an evident logical development of stories. Transitions should be smooth. The delivery should include a clear, pleasant and confident voice; the rate should be understandable and varied; news items should be separated by pauses and changes in pitch; correct emphasis and phrasing of thought should be apparent. Reading clarity and the appeal of the stories selected should be considered when evaluating a clearly communicated newscast. Students must use the news script provided by the contest, and may not add material, except transition sentences, introductions (such as call letters) and conclusions. In delivery, the speaker should be poised, hold attention, and use language effectively. The speaker's voice should be fluent and clear, and delivery should be sincere. The total presentation should be natural and interesting. Attention should be paid to good pronunciation and articulation, adequate volume, tone and acceptable vocal quality and demonstrate true radio broadcasting style. The time limit is 4:50 to 5:05 with the student expected to finish at 5:00 minutes.

SPECIAL OCCASION SPEAKING (SOS)

Definition: Special Occasion Speaking is the oral presentation of the student's original speech where the student is himself or herself at his or her current age speaking in a realistic situation for the purpose of entertaining an audience.

Purpose: The purpose of Special Occasion Speaking is to provide an opportunity for contestants to present a practical message in an entertaining manner under simulated "real life" conditions organized around a central theme and designed to make a serious point through the use of humor.

Material: Material must be original. The content, format, style, and thought of the material must be solely the product of the contestant. No more than 150 words of the speech may be direct quotation.

Appropriateness of Material: See VIII-A-1 of the Speech Terms and Conditions.

Time Limit: 8 minutes.

Timekeeping Procedures: See VIII-E of the Speech Terms and Conditions.

Time Limit Penalty: For each full thirty (30) seconds of overtime (8:30.01, 9:00.01, etc. or 1 tic past 8:30, 9:00, etc.) the contestant's ranking from each judge will be lowered by one (1) place. This reduction is mandatory and will be administered by the contest management. The other contestants' ranks will not be affected. There is no penalty for speaking less than eight (8) minutes.

Use of Script, Props and Visual Aids During Performance: No properties will be allowed. Visual aids are not permitted at any time, including handouts or materials before, during or after the competition. Notes, notecards or manuscripts may be used.

Presentation: Students may use notes, notecards or manuscripts or speak from memory.

Standards for Excellence: The material for the speech should be organized to suit the subject, purpose, and occasion and to entertain. Though Special Occasion Speaking is a speech to entertain, the entertaining elements should supplement, not replace, the speech structure. Thus, if the entertaining elements were removed from the speech, there would still be a clear speech structure with the use of supporting materials. In a public speaking event, characterization is used as an example, when done by the speaker. It should not be a primary element in the speech. The delivery of the speech should demonstrate the poise and audience contact of the speaker. Pronunciation, articulation, and volume should be adequate; the speaker's voice should be pleasant; the speaker's appearance should provide no distractions.

PERFORMANCE IN THE ROUND (PIR)

Definition: Performance in the Round is the presentation of material involving three or more students in a space where the fourth wall is removed thus bringing actor into the same space as the audience.

Purpose: The purpose of Performance in the Round is to provide students with expanded acting opportunities in non-traditional spaces.

Material: Material can be original works and/or scripted published works of humorous and/or dramatic nature. Literature, full length works, excerpts, adaptations, and compilations are permissible.

Appropriateness of Material: See VIII-A-1 of the Speech Terms and Conditions.

Time Limit: The time limit for a PIR performance is fifteen (15) minutes.

Timekeeping Procedures: Performances shall not exceed fifteen (15) minutes in length from the initial performance element to the final performance element. In addition to the actual performance time, each PIR will have an additional thirty (30) seconds to "place or set up" and thirty (30) seconds to "remove or take down" their allowable materials. After the physical set-up, the circle is cleared. The actual performance begins as soon as the name of the school performing, the title of the performance, and the author(s) of the performance is announced by the room chair. Timers shall start the clock with the first identified audio and or visual element inside or outside of the performance circle after the room chair's introduction.

1. Two (2) timers shall keep time and follow the same procedures as outlined in VIII-E of the Speech Terms and Conditions.

2. The director/student of each PIR shall describe to the timers prior to the start of the performance, the precise moments of the initial cue and final performance element. Timers shall use these cues as guidelines to start and stop timing. Official timing will begin with the first performance element and conclude with the final performance element.

3. For each full thirty (30) seconds of overtime (15:30.01, 16:00.01, etc. or 1 tic past 15:30, 16:00 etc.) the performances ranking from each judge will be lowered by one (1) place. Both timers must confirm the overtime. This reduction is mandatory and will be administered by the contest manager. The other performances ranks will not be affected. There is no penalty for performing less than fifteen (15) minutes.

Use of Script, Props, and Visual Aids: Costumes and personal hand-held props may be used. Footwear must be worn by all members of the cast. No scenery may be used. No auxiliary/supplemental lighting shall be used. Facility lighting will always remain on. Two (2) solid standard tables with four legs approximately 30" x 40" inches in length and ten (10) chairs shall be provided by the host site. If a table meeting these approximate dimensions is not available, managers should specify the dimensions and any other specifics of the table to be used to competing schools prior to the start of the tournament. Schools will not be allowed to bring additional tables, chairs, stools, set pieces, etc. Students are not allowed to stand on the table and chairs at any time for liability reasons. Scripts/interp. books may be held.

Presentation: The actual performance space shall be in a 16-foot diameter taped circular area. The width of the aisle should be no less than 30 inches. This may be in a classroom, study hall, cafeteria, gymnasium, music room, multi-purpose room, auxiliary space, or a stage, etc. and can be marked off with tape. The audience will be in an arena arrangement and the performance space in the center of the area. The audience will be placed around the performance space at an appropriate distance as allowed by the performance area from the circle allowing for adequate movement. Judges need to be positioned an equal distance apart from one another around the circle, as reasonably possible. Avoid sitting judges directly beside aisle. Judges seating positions must be approved by the committee the day of the performance. Except for music and sound effects, all performance elements, including off stage dialogue, must be within the 16-foot circle. Four (4) entrance and exit shall be at spaced equally around the circle. Note: See illustration.

1. Live and/or electronic music/sound effects may be used. If used, music/sound should enhance the performance, not dominate the performance. Only eligible students are permitted to operate any technical equipment during the performances.

2. Performers may enter and leave the performance space aisles as dictated by the director and/or script.

3. Character(s) performing solo or ensemble singing initiated within the performance circle must resolve itself upon leaving the circle. Solo or ensemble singing initiated while outside of the circle should support contextual mood and not represent a specific character(s) intension and must resolve itself upon entering the performance circle. No performance elements should occur in the aisles. For entrances and exits, performers may only maintain physical (no verbal/sound) characterization.

4. General Penalty for Violations in PIR: Unless otherwise specified in the rules, the penalty for rules violations in any round of competition throughout the entire contest series shall be that the PIR's ranking in the round where the violation occurs be changed to last and the ranks of other contestants will be adjusted as necessary.

Judging: Each performance in the round will only perform once at regionals and sectional. The state final will have preliminary and final rounds in PIR.

1. At regionals three (3) judges shall be used. The top four finishers from each regional shall advance to sectionals.

2. At sectionals five (5) judges shall be used. The highest and lowest rankings shall be dropped. The top three finishers from each sectional shall advance to the state final.

3. At the state final three (3) judges shall be used for the preliminary rounds. The final round shall have five (5) judges and the highest and lowest rankings shall be dropped.

Ties: Ties will be broken for advancement. The Judges Preference tie break process will be used to break ties.

Standards of Excellence: The material should provide an opportunity for the performers to develop an understandable sequence with coherence and clarity. The movement should flow naturally from the performers, giving proper focus to action and reaction. The performance should use space effectively to provide for optimum visual effects.

On behalf of the Illinois High School Association, thank you for your services and for enriching the educational experience through interscholastic competition.

EFFECTIVE JUDGING

(To be distributed to all judges)

Judges must realize that the most important part of their assignments is not ranking contestants. Certainly giving ranks to performers is the ultimate product of a judge's effort; but making a positive contribution to enrich the student's educational experience through the written critique prepared for each performance is the most important part of the judging assignment. As the judge you are the "game official" and have control of the round of competition. Please consult the host manager if you have any questions or concerns.

To help judges write critiques which will, indeed, contribute to students' learning from their contest experiences, the following suggestions are offered:

1. Be certain to write legibly, using understandable terms. The best critique in the world will be ineffective if it can't be deciphered.
2. Be certain to use positive language in the critique. Describe weaknesses and deficiencies in words which do not incite negative reactions. Telling a student that "this was a terrible performance" does not help that student look positively for ways to improve.
3. Be certain to relate the performance to the competition. A very good performance may bring a rank of 4th or 5th in a round of other very good performances. Students need help, in words from their judges, to understand the competitive perspective to which they have submitted their work.
4. Be certain to identify key factors which could be worked on and which, if improved upon, would improve the overall effectiveness of the performance. Suggestions regarding how to improve are also appreciated. Use the IHSA Standards for Excellence in the Speech Rules Book as a guide.
5. Be certain to emphasize the "major reasons" for the ranking assigned to each performance. Students and coaches don't want vague, generalized or petty comments. Provide specific reasons for the outcome of a student's performance. Be direct, yet kind; you don't have time or space to elaborate.
6. Be certain to write the kind of critique you would want to receive. Never be satisfied with anything less.
7. Be aware that you may be ranking students with a variety of skill levels and backgrounds. Make sure your critique enriches the educational experience for the student.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SPEECH: INDIVIDUAL EVENTS

ROOM CHAIRS AND TIMEKEEPERS

A. GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

The role of timer and room chair is very important to the management of the tournament. Room Chairs and Timekeepers should secure from the local manager a copy of the current IHSA Speech Manual for Schools. Read it carefully, paying particular attention to Individual Events Article VIII-E.

B. ROOM CHAIRMEN

1. Absence and Tardiness

You should make a careful check to see that judges, timekeepers and contestants are on hand before starting a round. Every effort should be made to start a round on time, but be sure you do not start without the timekeeper or the judge(s). Read Article VIII-F-5 on the procedure in case of tardiness or absence of any contestant. Before you permit a tardy contestant to participate out of order you must have, and provide to the judge, written assurance that his appearance on the program has been approved by the local manager. Judges have no authority to allow a contestant to perform out of order without the written consent of the manager. If the local manager has authorized any change in the printed program, be sure that the judge is informed of the change. An introductory prompt has been provided below for your use. Begin each round with a statement like the following:

“Good morning/Good afternoon. My name is _____ and I will be your room chair. Welcome to _____ H.S. for the I.H.S.A. Regional/Sectional/State competition. This contest will be run under the terms and conditions of the Illinois High School Association. Please make sure all cell phones are turned off at this time. Now let’s take roll. Your timers will be seated ___XXX___. The procedure for timers is as follows: The clock will begin at the first sound or action of performance and stop at the end of the performance. At the end of the required time limit, both timers will raise their hands and hold them up until the performer concludes. No other signals will be used. Good luck to you all.”

2. Provisions to be made for the Judge

You should see that judges are provided with the following:

- Sufficient judges’ ballots of the correct type (secure from local manager).
- A clip board, desk or some other firm surface upon which to write.
- A supply of scratch paper and writing devices if necessary.
- A good seat centrally located within hearing and seeing distance from the performance with timer(s) located behind the judges.
- In Impromptu Speaking, performers should prep while seated behind the judges.

Immediately after each section of competition, collect the judges’ ballots and turn them over to the local manager. Please handle this material confidentially. Judges should not have to turn their ballots into the Tab Room. Judges can request to speak to the Tab Room/Manager at any time.

3. Room Chairs and Doorkeepers

You should see that the room chairs/doorkeepers are in attendance at all contests. Doorkeepers should be carefully instructed not to admit anyone during the time a contestant is speaking. Latecomers should be admitted and seated between performances only. In Impromptu, audience members should not leave once the round begins. Doors should be open at the beginning and end of competition, and between each competitor’s performance.

C. TIMEKEEPERS

1. General Conduct and Demeanor

Timekeepers should be courteous, friendly and make every effort to help competitors feel at ease. Timers should never give the final performance time out loud with the only exception being Radio Speaking. Impromptu prep time shall be given orally in 30 second intervals for a required total of 2 minutes of prep time.

(Extemp./Radio/Impromptu- please note timing procedure differences in Article VIII-E of the Individual Events terms and conditions)

2. Special Instructions to Timekeepers

Two timekeepers must be present for every round of competition. The timers must be seated so as to be readily visible to the performers. Individual Event timekeepers are to explicitly follow the instructions of Article VIII-E of the Speech: Individual Events terms and conditions. Note that judges are not to impose penalties for time violations — any such penalties will be assessed by the Contest Manager. Be sure to use a stopwatch for keeping time. Do not clear the watch until you have recorded the time after each contestant ends. Make sure both timekeepers are in view of the performer. Both timekeepers must raise their hands above their head at the beginning of the allotted time (for example: 8 minutes for most events). Hands must remain raised until the student concludes performing except in Extemp, Radio and Impromptu.

3. There should be two timekeepers in every round. The Room Chair/Usher/Doorkeeper may also serve as timers. (We recommend each round conducts a sample timing example from where they will be seated with hands raised for all contestants to view).

D. QUESTIONS

1. If at any time there are questions or concerns regarding the room chair/timer/judge/competitor or round of competition please seek the host manager for clarification immediately.
